

THE EARTH'S FIRST CREATED ORDER AND FALL

(Genesis 1:2; Isaiah 14:1-14; Jeremiah 4:23-26; Ezekiel 28:11-17; II Peter 3:5-6)

MOSES' TEACHING:

In Gen. 1:2 we have the fact that the Earth was already in existence "before" the Spirit began to "rebuild—or renew (chadash)" the face of the Earth—Ps. 104:30. In verse 1, we have the original creation of the Heavens and the Earth, formed and established by God to be fruitful and inhabited—Isa. 45:18. In verse 2, we have the original perfect Earth made chaos, desolate, waste, a wilderness and darkness, flooded with water which destroyed all life on Earth. Let us allow the Word to prove to us what is truth. Not man.

The word "was" in verse 2 is from the Hebrew "hayah" which is a verb meaning "to become". It is translated 67 times—became—in the Old Testament. For example: In Gen. 19:26, Lot's wife "became" (hayah) a pillar of salt for her rebellion to God's Word. Thus the earth "became" (hayah) chaotic and desolate. Just as Lot's wife was not always a pillar of salt, neither was the Earth created in darkness as Gen. 1:2 says it became.

The phrase "without form" is from the Hebrew (tohu), which means waste, desolation, or confusion. It is translated waste (Deut. 32:10); without form (Gen. 1:2, Jer. 4:23); vain (Isa. 45:18; I Sam. 12:21); confusion (Isa. 24:10; 34:11; 41:29); empty (Job 26:7); vanity (Isa. 40:17, 23; 44:9; 59:4); nothing (Job 6:18; Isa. 40:17); and also the word wilderness (Job 12:24; Ps. 107:40).

You can see from these scriptures what the words really mean and what the condition of the Earth was in Gen. 1:2. We know by scripture, God did not originally create the Earth in such a waste and ruined state. It is definitely recorded by the Prophet Isaiah, in Isa. 45:18, that God did NOT create the Earth "tohu" (vain or desolate), yet in Gen. 1:2, the Earth was "tohu". Something happened for the Earth to change from its original created order in Gen. 1:1, for habitation, to Gen. 1:2—desolation.

The Hebrew word for "void" is bohu, which means empty, ruin or void. It is translated void (Gen. 1:2; Jer. 4:23) and emptiness (Isa. 34:11). The Hebrew phrase "Tohu va Bohu" (waste and ruin, or desolate and empty) describes the chaotic condition of the Earth since "the beginning" and before the six days of reconstruction found in Gen. 1:3-2:25. Let us enjoy this study immensely as we see the incredible depth of the Holy Word of God brought forth by the Prophets: Moses, Isaiah, Jeremiah, Ezekiel. God said to Adam and Eve, "be fruitful, multiply and replenish" the earth. The same words spoken to Noah and his wife after their flood. Did Lucifer's rebellion cause a flood?

THE EARTH'S FIRST CREATED ORDER AND FALL

(Genesis 1:2; Isaiah 14:1-14; Jeremiah 4:23-26; Ezekial 28:11-17; II Peter 3:5-6)

ISAIAH'S TEACHING:

In Isa.14:12-14 we have conclusive proof that Lucifer ruled the Earth before the days of Adam. It could not have been "SINCE" Adam that he ruled and fell from Heaven, as in this passage, for he was already a fallen creature before Adam was created.

In this passage both Satan and the King of Babylon are mentioned. A visible person is addressed at the same time an invisible being who is using the visible person as a tool to hinder the plan of God. Such as in Mt.16:23, where Jesus said to Peter, "Get thee behind me Satan, for thou art an offense to me". Peter was not Satan personally, but being used by Satan to hinder Jesus from getting to the cross. Thus the King of Babylon is used in the sense of this order, and Isaiah explains to us that because of the fall of Lucifer, these things in the kingdoms of this world exist. Note the following facts:

- 1. That his name is Lucifer—lightbringer, brightness*
- 2. He was the "son" of the morning, therefore, no earthly man*
- 3. He fell from Heaven; no man is ever recorded to have done this. Only Satan in Luke 10:18.*
- 4. He was cut down to the ground (earth), he weakened nations, made the earth tremble, did shake kingdoms, made the world a wilderness, destroyed cities, opened not the house of his prisoners.*
- 5. He exalted his heart, invaded Heaven, was a king with a throne, was defeated.*
- 6. Had to be before Adam, for when in Eden, Adam had dominion*
- 7. God's throne is located in the north part of the universe—(Ps.75:6-7)*
- 8. Lucifer MADE the earth a wilderness.*

We thus see the original kingdom of Lucifer. It was on earth and he had authority. It says in Col.1:15-16 that there are thrones and dominions and principalities and powers in the visible as well as the invisible realm. There were inhabitants here before Adam and this is where the possibility of demons originated, for being disembodied spirits, they may have come from a Pre-Adamite race, for hell did not yet exist. (Mt.25:41)

JEREMIAH'S TEACHING: (Jer.4:23-27)

Jeremiah was known as a "weeping" prophet. His heart cry and torn soul were for the sake of Israel. Even though they were in such rebellion, hard-hearted and stiff-necked ways, he still cried unto them for repentance. We have an interesting scene here in Jeremiah 4. He is exhorting Judah to repent in the early chapter and then has weeping and lamentations for her later in the chapter. In seeing the wickedness, he writes in verses 23-27 about seeing the earth in her time of great upheaval by the voice of God that came in Genesis 1:2.

"I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved lightly. I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled. I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of the Lord, by his fierce anger. For thus hath the Lord said, The whole land shall be desolate; yet will I not make a full end"

Jeremiah is letting Israel know that their land, because of rebellion, was going to be left desolate, but in THIS case, God added the assurance that HE would not make a full end of their land as was done in Lucifers fall.

This can not be figurative in thinking, for literal descriptions of a literal judgment are mentioned. In seeing the depth of their rebellion, the prophet is allowed in spirit to see that Israel is going to be like Gen.1:2, and for this cause, lamentations take over his heart and soul. What a tragedy is about to unfold.

PETER'S TEACHING: (II Pet.3:6-7)

Peter gives a definite statement here about "a world that THEN WAS". This is talking about a social system (kosmos) that once existed BEFORE our current order which was destroyed completely by a flood. Perished in the greek (apollumi—to utterly destroy, fully) The next statement is about "the heavens and earth, WHICH ARE NOW" will be reserved unto judgment by fire. Follow the scriptures here. He talks about the beginning of creation (Gen.1:1) mans ignorance to the Word of God on how the heavens of old were standing OUT of the water (pre-adamite) and IN the water (Lucifers flood), whereby the WORLD THAT THEN WAS perished. The Heavens and Earth, WHICH ARE NOW, are reserved unto fire. I think the scriptures speak for themselves.

THE OVERTHROW OF THE PRE-ADAMITE WORLD

The many questions we could and will continue to ask about this amazing aspect of the Word of God will go on forever. Of course, I believe the more we grow and come to the "spiritual understanding" (Col.1:6-16) of the Word, the more we will see.

I think we have shown so far, enough scripture to warrant the existence of a Pre-Adamite Social World Order. Many will forever dispute this or try to explain the scriptures away, but I feel we have seen enough. We may not fully comprehend, nor even understand how it may have looked, but to know of its existence is what matters.

Simply put: God created the Heavens first, then the Earth, all in the beginning or in the dateless past (Gen.1:1; Job 38:4-7). He caused the Heavens and the Earth to be inhabited and gave Lucifer control of the Earth-Kingdom (Col.1:15-18; Rev.12:12; Eze.28:11-18; Isa.14:12-17; 45:18). Lucifer ruled for God for an unknown period before he rebelled and invaded Heaven to dethrone God (Eze.28:11-18; Isa.14:12-17). He was defeated, and his kingdom on Earth was destroyed by a flood and by the fierce anger of God (Gen.1:2; Jer.4:23-26; Ps.104:5-9, 30; II Pet.3:5-6). The flood remained for a period of time that no man knows and through the darkness and cold, an ice age truly existed entombing the Earth and all in it (Job 37:9-10; 38:4-7, 24-30). Upon the voice of God, in six days HE began the restoration of the Earth as we now know it today. He again set up an place of habitation (Isa.45:18) and made Adam and his creation to carry out the original plan God had concerning the Earth (Gen.1:3-2:25). Lucifer, who became satan, along with the fallen angels and demons caused the fall of man, and regained dominion of the Earth through Adam's submission (II Cor.11:3; Eph.2:1-3; 6:10-12; Rom.5:12-21). They have been in control ever since and will be in control until the Second Coming of Christ, who will put down all rebellion and then establish a New Heaven and New Earth.

We have much to learn. Just know that Jesus destroyed the works of the devil, found in I Jn.3:1-10 and Col.2:8-15.

There were nations (Isa 14:12) and kingdoms (Isa 14:16) before Adam, but because the fall of Lucifer, he brought them down with him (Isa 14:12-17; Ez 28:12-17). God took the light from the earth and covered it with water to bury the sins or for judgement of sins.
